

Change to the Consent Requirements for Screening Subjects

- Consent or IRB waiver of consent no longer required to determine subject eligibility
  - May obtain oral or written information from the prospective subject
  - May access identifiable records or biospecimens
  - NO procedures/interventions may be conducted
- Aligns with the FDA's requirements