

Opening eSlides without save prompts

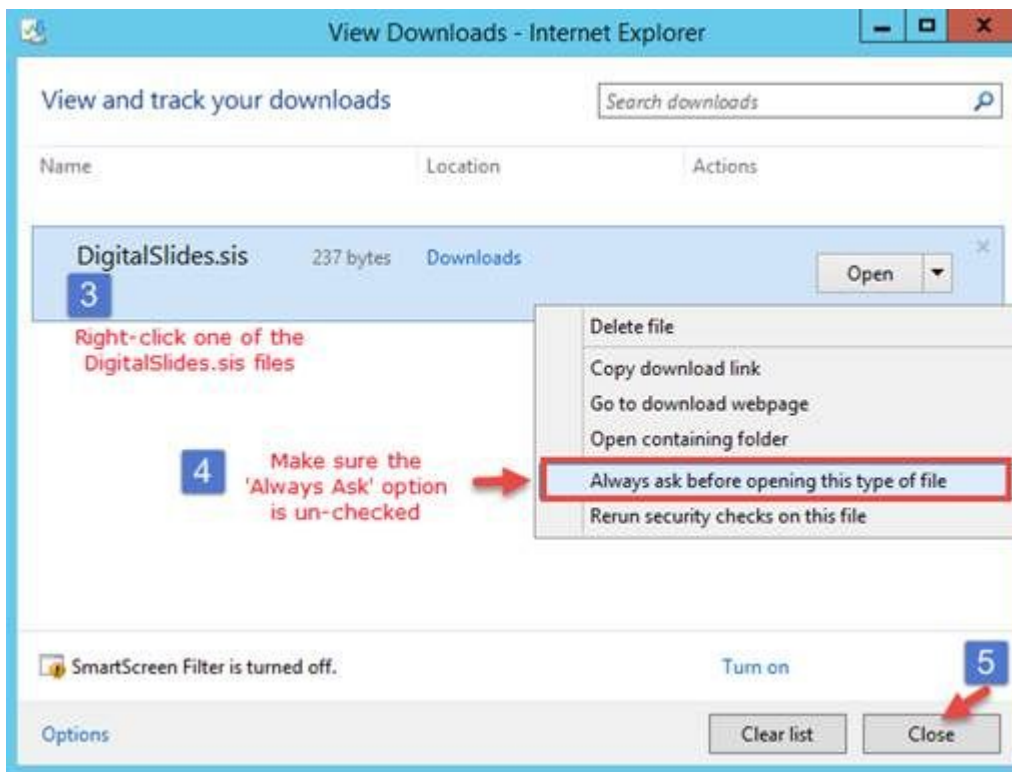

Here are some details on how to open digital slides with ImageScope, without being prompted each time to open/save.

For Internet Explorer v11.x:

When you click on an image thumbnail, it will display the question at the bottom of the browser 'Do you want to open or save DigitalSlides.sis?'

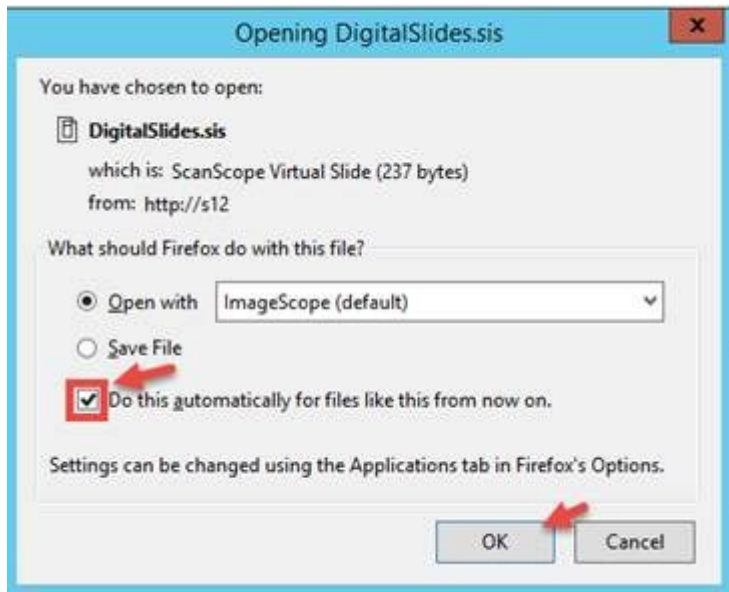

Select the 'Save' button, then select the 'View Downloads' button.

Right-click one of the 'DigitalSlides.sis' downloads, then select the option 'Always ask before opening this type of file'

For Firefox (v47):

When you click on an image thumbnail, it will display the 'Opening DigitalSlides.sis window'. Check the box for 'Do this automatically for files like this from now on', then OK.

For Chrome (Please note: It is not officially supported by Leica)
When you click on an image thumbnail, it will display the 'DigitalSlides.sis' download file in the lower left corner of the browser.
Click the arrow to the right of the file name. then select the option 'Always open files of this type'.
